

SECTION - IV

The norms set by it for the discharge of its functions

Though, no norms have yet been set in the Board for the discharge of its functions, it is expected that no urgent paper lies unattended for more than two days at any desk. However, the various functions are reviewed and modified as often as necessary to adapt to changing conditions, priorities, and resources.